WTA Code of Conduct

A member of the Wildlife Translocation Association of South Africa, in practicing his profession, shall at all times:

- ✿ Capture, handle, care and transport all animals in a humane manner, and ensure that persons under his employ or instruction do the same.
- ✿ Ensure that the animals under his direct or indirect care suffer minimal stress.
- ✿ Ensure that all sick or injured animals under his direct or indirect care receive competent veterinary attention – or, where necessary, be euthanased humanly at the soonest opportunity.
- ✿ Have due regard for public safety, public health and public interest generally.
- ✿ Fulfil his duties to his employer or client efficiently and with integrity.
- ✿ Uphold the dignity and standing of the Wildlife Translocation Association at all times.
- ✿ Refrain from maliciously injuring, either directly or indirectly, the professional reputation, prospects or business of any other member of the Association.
- ✿ Act in accordance with this code, provided that his actions are not in contravention of the laws of the country concerned. He shall also adhere to the recognized standards of conduct pertaining to his profession.
